

Declaration of the honest Intents of Department of Science Service administrator

Department of Science Service has executive commitment with Good governance, Honesty and Moral ethics.

I am Mrs. Umaporn Sookmuang , General Director of Department of Science Service want to reveal these intents :

I will administrate with the principles of good governance, honesty, behave and hold onto what is righteous, have a good conscious mind, mission responsibility, sacrifice, readily perform the role with transparency and ability to verify, separate personal matters from the official position, take national advantage above private advantage, do not get benefit dishonestly from the official position, forthright follow the constitution and laws with equity, political neutrality, provide good-natured services to the public with non-discrimination, reveal the necessary official information absolutely, properly and without distorting facts, As a result, the agency is free from corruption either on policy and malpractice.

Announced on February 5, 2018.

Mrs. Umaporn Sookmuang

General Director of Department of Science Service